An old-fashioned Fourth of July

Enjoy all the fun and festivities this Independence Day at the Friendship Heights Village Center on Tuesday, July 4, from 2 to 4 p.m. The celebration takes place, rain or shine.

Come enjoy Bows the Clown as she entertains with face painting, balloon sculptures, and her pet rabbit. Have your palm read or take a train ride around the block. We'll even have a child-sized carousel for the kiddies. There will be a free concert performed by Jack Stanton and games and prizes for children. Feast on traditional Fourth of July fare including hot dogs, popcorn, snow cones, and cupcakes.

The Elizabeth Scull Community Service Award will be presented to Bruce Romer, Montgomery County Chief Administrative Officer. Community Service Awards will be presented to Gertrude Slifkin, Eleanor Martin, Elizabeth Noyes, and MaryEla Lacock.

Barbeque in the Park

Enjoy an evening of fun, summer food and music

What says summer more than an outdoor barbeque? Join us on Saturday, Aug. 12, from 5:30 to 7 p.m., as Friendship Heights hosts our first Barbeque in the Park. The "Dixie Barbeque" menu will include beef barbeque, barbequed chicken, baked beans, Texas coleslaw, Red Bliss potato salad, fresh vegetables with ranch dip, Kaiser rolls, chocolate brownies, assorted gourmet cookies, and iced tea with lemon.

We'll also have entertainment by the Mountain Fever Band.

The cost of the event is $25 per person; children 8 and under pay $12. Sign up immediately at the Village Center. The deadline is July 20. This event takes the place of our annual crab feast. There are 60 spaces available. A minimum of 25 is required. For more information, call the Village Center at 301-656-2797.

It's an evening of fun for the whole family.

Get Crabby!

There's nothing like traveling across the Chesapeake Bay Bridge to Maryland's Eastern Shore to enjoy some of the Bay's bounty. Sample the flavor of the Eastern Shore when we take a trip to Tilghman Island in beautiful Talbot County on Tuesday, July 25.

Before lunch, we'll enjoy a one-hour cruise around Tilghman Island aboard the Express Royale, a 50-foot tour boat. Then we'll visit a crab wholesaler, just before sitting down to crab cake luncheon at Harrison's Chesapeake House. Other options are available for those who can't eat seafood. After lunch, we'll observe a crab-picking demonstration, and visit a local seafood market. Before returning home, we'll stop by the historic town of St. Michaels, where you can browse through the quaint shops and boutiques.

We will depart the Village Center at 8:15 a.m. and should return by 6:15 p.m.

The cost of the trip is $73 and includes transportation, boat ride, tours, lunch and all gratuities.

Residents and one guest may sign up immediately. Nonresidents may sign up beginning July 11. There are 39 spaces available. This trip involves walking on some uneven areas.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Camp Friendship is sooo cool

Get cooking, get crafty and keep cool this summer with Camp Friendship. This annual week-long camp offers creative crafts, outdoor play and lots of fun right here in the Village of Friendship Heights. Children, ages 3 to 8, are invited to take part in our week-long summer camp at the Village Center. Each day features a different theme, so there's something for even the choosiest child. The program begins Monday, July 17 and continues each day through Friday, July 21. On Monday, children will get in touch with their creative side with "Young at Art." On Tuesday, kids try on their chefs aprons with "Kids in the Kitchen." Wednesday features the always-popular "Pizza and Play Day." Thursday will inspire children to "Get Growing in the Garden," and Friday is our Camp Friendship Finale.

Each session begins at 10:30 a.m. and ends at noon. Children and their parents or guardians are invited to bring a picnic lunch to enjoy from noon to 12:30 p.m. Events will include craft and cooking days, art projects, and a special finale.

Children must be accompanied by an adult. The cost is $50 per child for all five sessions. Families signing up more than one child pay $40 per child. Single sessions are available for $10 per child per session.

A Summertime Saturday Storytime

You don't need to travel to the beach to enjoy all the pleasures of summer. Local actress and singer Barbara Papendorp is back for a seasonal treat featuring the Berenstain Bears. Join us on Saturday, Aug. 19, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., when we enjoy a story, The Berenstain Bears by the Sea. Following the story, children will have the chance to make a craft inspired by the seashore, and sample a tasty summertime treat.

This program is designed for children between the ages of 3 and 8 years of age, but all are welcome. Children must be accompanied by a parent, grandparent or guardian. There is no charge for this event, but please call the Center at 301-656-2797, if you plan to attend. The deadline to sign up is Wednesday, Aug. 16.

Visit the Amish Market

Got a hankering for fresh baked whoopee pies, smoked pork chops, roast of rabbit? The exotic and the everyday are available at the Pennsylvania Dutch Market in Germantown. Open just a few days each week, the market features fresh meats, baked goods, fresh produce and flowers, butter, ice cream, and cheese, spices, snacks, and even hand-crafted furniture. Enjoy delicious Amish specialties such as chicken pot pie or ham and cabbage at the market's restaurant. So bring your cooler and an appetite and join us on Thursday, Aug. 10.

We will depart from the Center at 11 a.m. and will return by 3 p.m.

The cost of the trip is $17. Sign-ups begin immediately at the Village Center. There are 45 spaces available.

Let's go to the Beach

Surf, sand and sunshine await us as we travel to Delaware to Rehoboth Beach on Thursday, Aug. 24. There's nothing like summer at the beach and the sand, water and air are still delightfully warm.

Take a stroll on the boardwalk, enjoy a seafood lunch or just take in the sea air. You may choose to spend the day exploring the outlet stores along Route 1. At the Tanger Seaside outlet center, you'll find Brooks Brothers, L'Eggs, Hanes, Eddie Bauer, J. Crew, London Fog, Little Me, OshKosh B'Gosh, The Children's Place, Bon Worth, Etienne Aigner, Springmaid Wamsutta, Stride Rite, Sperry, Le Gourmet Chef, Mikasa, Oneida, Royal Doulton, Waterford, Wedgwood, Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory, Samsonite, and many, many more outlet stores.

We'll take you to the beach, then you're free to choose your itinerary.

We'll depart from the Village Center at 8 a.m., arriving in Rehoboth in time for lunch—there are numerous restaurants and cafes along the Boardwalk and Rehoboth Avenue. After a day at the shore, we'll return to the Village Center around 7:30 p.m.

The cost of the trip is $40. Sign-ups begin immediately. Nonresidents may sign up Aug. 10. There are 45 spaces available.

Maureen McGovern and 'Little Women'

A few tickets remain to attend a matinee performance of this dazzling musical at the Kennedy Center on Saturday, July 22.

Louisa May Alcott's Little Women, one of America's most beloved books, follows the saga of the March sisters as they grow up in Civil War America. In the musical version, Maureen McGovern heads up the wonderful cast in the role of "Marmee" for which she received a 2005 Drama Desk Award Nomination and glowing reviews on Broadway.

The cost of the trip, which includes an Orchestra seat (at a 30 percent group discount), transportation, and driver gratuity, is $84. We will leave the Village Center at 12:45 p.m. and return before 5 p.m.

A day in Atlantic City

Try your luck when we travel to the Tropicana Casino in Atlantic City, on Tuesday, July 11.

We will leave the Village Center at 7:30 a.m. and should be home before 10:30 p.m. There will be one rest stop on the way up and one stop for a fast-food dinner in the evening. The cost is $29 and you will receive $18 in coins from the casino. Sign up immediately at Center. There are 50 seats available.

Nobody under the age of 21 will be allowed on the bus. We will depart the casino promptly at 6 p.m. Reminder: you may not sign up another person for the trip unless you are going also. Please be aware this trip involves considerable walking.

Phyllis Richman to speak at the Center

Phyllis Richman, award-winning food critic of The Washington Post for more than 23 years, will talk about her career as restaurant reviewer and novelist at the Village Center on Thursday, Aug. 3, at 7:30 p.m.

Ms. Richman wrote a dining column, annual dining guides, and food features for nearly every section of the newspaper while at the Post and also served as food editor for eight years. She is author of three novels, The Butter Did It, Murder on the Gravy Train, and Who's Afraid of Virginia Ham?

Ms. Richman has won awards from the Association of Food Journalists for her food sections and her columns, and served as its writer-in-residence. She has also won Penney-Missouri, Bert Greene and James Beard awards. She is a member of "Who's Who of Food and Beverage in America" and serves on the James Beard Awards Board. She has also served on the board of Washington Independent Writers, the James Beard Restaurant Awards Committee, and the IACP Cookbook Awards committee.

Now that she has retired, Ms. Richman reports that she is catching up on the cooking, reading, concerts, theater and movies she missed as a restaurant critic.

Please sign up for this lecture by calling 301-656-2797.

Winetasting with Ken Richards

Join us for an evening featuring Eastern Seaboard wines when Ken Richards, a wine expert from Asheville, N.C., comes north to present a winetasting and talk at the Friendship Heights Village Center on Wednesday, July 12, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Mr. Richards' talk will highlight wines from vineyards along the East Coast, including North Carolina, Virginia, and New York.

Those who took our recent trip to Asheville will remember Mr. Richards as our very entertaining and informative tour guide.

Following the talk and tasting, stay for the Vocal Express concert in Hubert Humphey Park at 7:30.

The cost of the talk is $5. Sign-ups begin immediately at the Village Center. There are 20 spaces available. The deadline to sign up is Friday, July 7.

Candidates Forum in Friendship Heights

Meet the candidates for County Executive at the Village Center on Thursday, July 13.

Democrats Ike Leggett, former County Council Member and currently a law professor at Howard University Law School, and Steve Silverman, an at-large member of the Montgomery County Council, will debate from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Republican Chuck Floyd, a 20-year United States Army veteran and colonel, will speak at 8 p.m. Independent Robin Ficker will speak at 8:30 p.m. Charles Duffy, host of Montgomery Municipal Cable Channel 16's "Political Pulse Talk Show," will serve as moderator.

FRIENDSHIP GALLERY

Three cheers for area artists

You are invited to visit Friendship Gallery and see "Three Cheers for the Red, White, and Blue - A Celebration of the Fourth of July." This multi-media juried exhibit, sponsored by the Village of Friendship Heights and open to all area artists, will run through the month of July. Its patriotic themes are inspired by parades, family gatherings, picnics, fireworks, and heroes. The exhibit is held in conjunction with the annual celebration at the Village Center. All are invited to meet the artists at a reception on Sunday, July 9, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Prizes will be awarded for first-, second-, and third-place as well as Honorable Mention. Winners will be selected by exhibit juror, Margaret Graham Kranking. Mrs. Kranking is an accomplished watercolorist who has taught for many years at the Woman's Club of Chevy Chase.

The exhibit begins July 2 and runs through July 29. Exhibit hours are Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Art work in the auditorium is occasionally not available for viewing because of certain activities in that room. Please check with the front desk receptionist when you arrive.

FHUN hits the rapids in August

Join the Friendship Heights Urban Network (FHUN) for an adventurous tubing trip on Saturday, Aug. 26. We will be renting tubes and riding the rapids of the Shenandoah River near the historic Harpers Ferry.

Once on the river we will have all day to enjoy the beautiful scenery. You can bring your own food to eat and enjoy near the river ("cooler" tubes are available for an additional $10). Please be aware that you have to be comfortable on the water and this activity will require lots of walking and moderate physical endurance.

The group will meet and depart from the Friendship Heights Village Center at 8:30 a.m. and should return by 7:30 that evening. If you're interested in joining us for a "FHUN" tubing trip you will have to sign up in person at the Friendship Heights Village Center by Thursday, Aug. 10 (sorry, reservations cannot be made over the phone or via email). We have room for 30-35 people, so sign up soon! This trip is for adults only.

The cost for the trip is $55, which includes round-trip transportation, tube and vest usage, taxes, and driver gratuity.

FHUN is dedicated to building the community of young professionals, young parents, and college students in Friendship Heights.

What's FHUN?

A new group dedicated to bringing together "young professionals, young parents, and college students" has recently been formed in the Village of Friendship Heights. The group, known as the Friendship Heights Urban Network (FHUN), is organizing events including monthly Happy Hours, summer barbecues, and special evenings at local restaurants. For more information, check FHUN's website at www.fhun.net. This group is independent of the Friendship Heights Village Council.

CONCERTS

Concerts are performed Wednesdays, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Hubert Humpbrey Park. In the event of inclement weather, the concerts will be performed in Huntley Hall.

Wednesday, July 5 — David McLaughlin. Enjoy an evening of traditional American music with critically acclaimed musician David McLaughlin. McLaughlin was a founding member of the traditional bluegrass band, the Johnson Mountain Boys, and was twice nominated for Grammy Awards with the group. He has played The Grand Ole Opry, Carnegie Hall and the White House, as well as numerous venues around the world. He has his own instructional mandolin video, and currently performs with both Springfield Exit, sold on the Cracker Barrel label, and Seneca Rocks!, and has his own recording studio in northern Virginia.

Wednesday, July 12 — Vocal Express. Get ready to tap your toes and sing along with this Friendship Heights favorite. Led by Don Johnson, this 13-member ensemble features an exciting mix of Broadway, pop, rock 'n' roll, country, calypso, jazz and patriotic music.

Wednesday, July 19 — Project Natale. Joe and Lou Natale formed Project Natale in 1990 and have been performing traditional jazz songs ranging from popular favorites such as "The Very Thought of You," to their own original compositions such as "I Get Bluesy." Project Natale delivers a smooth, mature style of music to their audiences, successfully combining sounds derived from the deep, moody tones of Joe's upright bass, blended with the bright, toe-tapping sounds of Lou's drumming.

Wednesday, July 26 — Emery Davis Trio. Emery Davis follows the musical tradition set by his father the renowned orchestra leader, Meyer Davis, and has forged a reputation as a superb musician who adapts comfortably to modern trends, while still maintaining the music of the past 30 or 40 years. After leaving the service, he joined the Pittsburgh Symphony, then played with the Detroit Symphony, the Royal Ballet, the Robert Shaw Choral and the Agnes de Mille Ballet. As director of the Emery Davis Orchestra, his repertoire includes everything from waltz to rock 'n' roll. A talented clarinet player, he leads this trio in an evening of jazz standards and popular American pieces.

My Heart Skips A Beat

How does the heart actually beat? What are the electrical impulses and how do they work? People can experience irregular heartbeats, atrial fibrillation and other symptoms that can be indicative of problems.

At this month's Suburban Health Talk on Wednesday, July 12, at 1 p.m., Dr. Getu Assefa, a cardiologist will discuss the physiology of the circulatory system and how "misfires" can produce congestive heart failure in some people. He will tell you about devices and pace makers that can be employed to control the irregular beats as well as a number of pharmaceutical options.

There is no cost for the talk, but please call 301-656-2797 to let us know if you plan to attend.

Cafe Muse presents...

This month's Café Muse, on Thursday, July 20, at 7 p.m., presents poets Cliff Bernier/Verneice Turner and Yoko Danno/James C. Hopkins in a poetic collaborations reading.

Cliff Bernier has appeared in such publications as Potomac Review and Baltimore Review and is featured on two Jazz poetry CDs as well as a CD of duets with Verneice Turner. His work has been nominated for a Pushcart Prize. Verneice Turner has performed at venues throughout New York state, New York City, Washington, DC, and Philadelphia. She conducts poetry workshops at colleges in and around Buffalo, New York.

Yoko Danno is the author of four books of poetry English-language poetry and has been published in journals, magazine, and anthologies. She is also a playwright, translator, and editor-in-chief of the Ikuta Press in Kobe, Japan. James C. Hopkins is the author of three books of poetry: The Walnut Tree Waits for Its Bees, Eight Pale Women, and The Blue Door, co-authored with Yoko Danno. His poems have appeared in Potomac Review, Baltimore Review, and Heliotrope. He is currently studying Buddhist philosophy and Himalayan languages at a Tibetan monastery in Kathmandu, Nepal.

Classical guitar selections performed by Michael Davis are presented each month at 7 p.m. Attending poets are invited to participate in an open reading that concludes the Café Muse program. A sign-up sheet will be available at 7 p.m.

Café Muse is presented by The Village of Friendship Heights and The Word Works, a nonprofit literary organization that has sponsored public programs for over 25 years. The evening is free, but please call the Village Center at 301-656-2797 to let us know you are coming.

Volunteers needed

The Center for Cognitive Neuroscience at the National Rehabilitation Hospital is seeking healthy volunteers ages 55 and up to participate in a research session that includes simple computerized tasks ("press the button" or "click a mouse") and traditional paper-and-pencil assessments of memory, movement skills, mood and personality. A session could be completed at the National Rehabilitation Hospital or in your home. No familiarity with computers is required. This is a non-invasive study. For more details, contact Dr. Alexander Libin (who is also a Willoughby resident since 1997) at 202-877-1070, email Alexander.Libin@Medstar.net or call Megan Hosey 202-877-1922 or email megan.hosey@medstar.net.

How to choose a senior community. Start with choices.

It's been 25 years since Sunrise Senior Living started giving seniors more choices about the way they want to live.

Today, Sunrise offers a variety of living arrangements, amenities and services, meal plans, social activities, transportation options, and personalized assistance and care. Our resident-centered approach to senior living puts the senior first, giving them options to meet their individual needs and wishes.

Project Heart Beat Returns with more CPR/Defibrillator Classes

In case you missed our popular series of CPR/Defibrillator training courses last fall, we have arranged for two additional classes this month at the Village Center. You can sign up for either of the following dates:

- Monday, July 17, 1 to 4 p.m.
- Saturday, July 29, 9 a.m. to 12 noon

Once again the course will cost residents only $5.00. The Village Council will subsidize the rest of the cost with Rothstein Scholarship funds allocated last fiscal year. The instructors from Rescue One will provide a course combining both CPR training and instruction in the use of the Automatic External Defibrillator, the two skills needed to help save the life of a Sudden Cardiac Arrest victim. Non-Village residents are eligible to take the course for $25.

Value Village Returns August 26

A Value Village truck will be here once again on Saturday, Aug. 26, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The truck will park on Friendship Boulevard next to the Village Center. Value Village accepts clothing, shoes, and books to support children and adults with developmental disabilities through the National Children's Center. They will not accept large furniture or large appliances.

Council actions at the June 12 public session:

- Approved proposal from Gali Service Industries to provide increase for Village Center maintenance person;
- Selected community service award winners to be presented at July 4 celebration;
- Approved transfer of $200,000 from General Fund to Capital Improvements Fund.
